Professional archivist Brenda Parnes of the New York State Archives will teach you the “Do’s and Don’ts” of preserving old documents such as family papers and photographs, historical records, and paper collectibles. No prior experience or knowledge of preservation practices is required. This will be a valuable workshop for genealogists, historians, archivists, collectors, or anyone who has a neglected shoebox filled with grandma’s old photos in their closet.

Attendees may bring one (only one, please) item from their collection for Ms. Parnes to examine and discuss for demonstration purposes.

Note: Advanced registration is required. For security reasons, a photo ID such as a driver’s license is necessary to enter the building.

LOCATION

Municipal Building, One Centre St., 19th fl.
(at Chambers St.; opposite the NE corner of City Hall Park)
Use south entrance.

Note: Photo ID is required to enter building.
